

Stakeholder and community involvement plan

Internal Stakeholders

Unit/Work Area	Name/Position	Why a stakeholder	Level of engagement	Methods to engage	Methods for feedback
O'Reilly's Management	All Managers	Maintain general understanding about project. Seek feedback	Inform/Consult	Email updates Monthly management meetings	Email Face to face
O'Reilly's Frontline Staff	All staff	Maintain general understanding about project	Inform	Project updates in staff newsletter	Face to face

External Stakeholders

Unit/Work Area	Name/Position	Why a stakeholder	Level of engagement	Methods to engage	Methods for feedback
Wangerriburra Elders - Traditional custodians	Ken Markwell	Shane O'Reilly and representatives from National Parks Qld had a conference call with one of the traditional custodians, Ken Markwell, and discussed aspects of the camping ground and operation and the possibility of their future involvement.	Inform / Consult	Face to face - host an informal update meeting and guide through the camp ground Information Bulletin	Face to face
Green Mountains Natural History Association (GMNHA)	Secretary	To keep members informed and updated on the progress of the project and how it may benefit GMNHA	Inform	Information Bulletin Attend NHA meeting and present the project	Face to face Email
National Parks Association of Queensland	Secretary	To keep members informed and updated on the progress of the project	Inform	Information Bulletin	Email
Canungra Information and Historical Association	All staff	To keep members informed and updated on the progress of the project.	Inform	Information Bulletin	Email
Committee for Gondwana Rainforests of Australia World Heritage Area	All committee members	To keep members informed and updated on the progress of the project	Inform	Presentation	Face to face Email
General public/tourists	Regular visitors to O'Reilly's and the Green Mtns Camp ground, and tourists		Inform	* O'Reilly's Rainforest Retreat website * Media releases * Social Media - Facebook, Instagram, Twitter * Information displays in Reception & Café of O'Reilly's	Email - summary of feedback from social media platforms Telephone